DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 5 it is indefinite as to what "flow passage is formed in a circular form at a certain interval therebetween in a circumferential direction" defines. Certain interval of what structure ? Therebetween what structure ?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,2, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the abstract of JP 1022225 A.

The Figures show a cleaner comprising a suction motor in a main body (13) including a filter, a suction head (14) connected with the filter by a pipe (15) and having an inlet (24), a brush rotatably mounted (18) at the inside of the suction head (14), the suction head including a belt cover (26) which divides the suction head into a first section (left of belt cover) and a second section (right of the belt cover) with a flow passage formed adjacent the brush roller (18) so that air can flow between the first section and second section (see figure 1).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3,4,6, are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 5 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).
